Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

As I write this Newsletter Article (December 23, 2024, 9:00pm), I sit on the brink of Christmas. Worships are prepped and ready. Bulletins are printed, folded, and stapled. I am about to finalize my sermon. My parents, brother, and sister-in-law are sitting at the dining room table eating pie and drinking hot cocoa. I am sitting in the dark of the kids' room willing them to lay down in their beds, close their mouths and their eyes, and go to sleep. There's a vibe of excited, anxious anticipation both in me and around me as the festivities are just a few hours from beginning.

As you read this Newsletter Article (sometime on or after January 1, 2025), your Christmas celebrations are likely mostly over. The turkey or ham or roast has been cooked and eaten (even the leftovers!). The presents have been opened, played with, in some cases, already used up or broken. Books have been read, travels completed, songs sung. Some have even already put away their Christmas trees and lights, to make room for the next season's or holiday's décor.

In our world of go-go-go, something that happened a week or more ago is distant past. We spent so much time planning for it that it seems only right that we should move on to the next thing. But like many other celebrations in the Christian Calendar, Christmas is not only one day. The season of Christmas for the church BEGINS on December 25 and goes until the Feast of the Epiphany on January 6. (If you didn't know, the Twelve Days of Christmas refer to those days between December 25 and January 6, not the twelve days leading up to Christmas.) So if you are reading this within the first few days of the New Year, it is still appropriate for me to say:

"Merry Christmas!"

Peace Quilters News!

The quilters of Peace meet each first, second, and fourth/fifth Wednesday morning at 9:00 until around noon. Anyone who is interested in joining us is welcome. If you don't know how to tie a quilt but would like to learn, with all the willing teachers we have, this is a good opportunity for you. We gather for coffee round 10:30 a.m. which is a good chance to socialize.

Peace Quilters will be hanging quilts in the fellowship hall each week to showcase their work. Please take a look to see what we're up to!

May the meaning of the birth of Christ linger with you as you go about these days. May the hope you felt Christmas Eve and Christmas Day still be with you. May the good tidings, the happy feelings, the merry festivities continue in your hearts and souls and minds, even as the rest of the world tells you it is time to move on.

And of course, may the love of God in Christ be with you now and forever, until the day he comes again.

Peace,

What a gift it is to share ministry with you all! As the stewardship series drew to a close, Peace received a few large financial gifts from very generous members. Thank you to everyone who gives, no matter the amount. Together, we can accomplish so much on behalf of God's kingdom!

In January 2025, be on the lookout for your year-end giving statements, as well as all the financial reporting that will go into the Annual Report.

God bless us all in the new year!

Coffee with the Council

Join the council on Saturday, January 18, and Sunday, January 19 after worship to discuss budget, annual reports, and preparation for the Annual Meeting. We will have our Annual Report Booklets prepared for these meetings.

Annual Report Deadline

Committee and Ministry Reports for the Annual Report are due on Wednesday, January 15, 2025 at 12:00 noon.

There are previous years' copies in the office if you need an idea of what to include.

New Member Welcome

Peace will hold a New Member Welcome Weekend on January 18 & 19, 2025. If you are interested in becoming a member at Peace, please contact Pastor Seth.

Are you interested in finding new or different ways to serve your church?

The nominating committee will soon begin its work ahead of the Peace Lutheran Annual Meeting in January, to identify and invite people to various leadership roles both within and outside the congregation.

If you would like to know more about being on Council, or serving as a delegate to one of our ministry partners in the community, please contact Pastor Seth!

NOTICE OF PEACE LUTHERAN CHURCH ANNUAL MEETING

Peace Lutheran Church will hold its Annual Meeting on Sunday, January 26, 2025. At this meeting, we will review the 2024 budget, approve the 2025 budget, elect council members and congregational delegates, and conduct other business of the church.

Please plan to attend!

Meet Natalie, our new Director of Youth & Family Ministry!

Hi, I'm Natalie and I'm overjoyed to be your new Director of Youth and Family Ministries. I know both the church and Lord will help me on this new journey! I attended school in Billings and grew up in Texas and Montana. I am currently finishing up my education degree at WGU, and just finished up eight months as a cast member at Walt Disney World Resort! I am excited to get to serve this congregation!

God bless,
Natalie

Youth Group

Peace Pals is for kids between Kindergarten and 3rd grade. Peace Pals starts at 5:30 PM and goes until 6:30 PM.

We serve a Community Dinner For kids (and adults) of all ages from 6:30-7:00 PM.

Peace Youth is for kids between 4th and 8th grade. Peace Youth begins at 7:00 PM and wraps up at 8:00 PM.

All are welcome to join the fun!

Wednesday Meal Prep

We are always looking for people to provide food and/or help prepare our Wednesday Evening Refuel Meal.

This can mean purchasing take out or delivery, buying food and dropping it off, or preparing food that has been donated. If you would like to help, please sign up on the sheet on the youth board next to the nursery, or contact Pastor Seth.

Wednesday Meal Schedule

Please check sign-up sheet for available dates

January 8- Abundant Life Committee

January 15- Rachel Henderson

January 22- Ruby Olmstead

January 29- Mission & Service Committee

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Peace Pals and Peace Youth will not meet on January 1, New Year's Day. We will resume our regular schedule on January 8.

Volunteer Opportunities

There are a number of opportunities to volunteer to help with youth programming at Peace.

We need drivers to pick up Peace Youth kids on Wednesday Evenings. We also need people to sit in on Peace Pals (5:30-6:30 pm) and Peace Youth (7-8pm) lessons as a second adult in the room.

Please contact Pastor Seth or see the Youth Bulletin Board if you have questions about these opportunities to serve our kids!

Youth & Family Ministry Committee

In January 2025, the Education/Youth Committee is reconfiguring itself as the Education, Youth, & Family Ministry Committee. This is to better reflect the scope of the ministry that this committee and the new Director of Youth & Family Ministry will be overseeing.

New Director of Youth & Family Ministry

See our announcement in this newsletter about our new Director of Youth & Family Ministry, Natalie Olson! Natalie will begin in this position on Monday, January 6, and we will bring her up to speed during the months of January and February.

Youth Collective at Peace

Four of the ELCA Congregations in Billings participate together in what we refer to as the Billings Youth Collective. This is an opportunity for fellowship, education, service, and spiritual growth shared across these congregations.

Peace is hosting this group on Sunday, January 19.

Our theme is When you did this for the least of these, you did it also for me. We will do a lesson on Matthew 25, make hygiene kits for the Peace Food Pantry, and share a meal together.

Please keep this ministry in your prayers as we prepare for this wonderful ministry!

Worship News

January 4th & 5th

The feast of Epiphany (“manifestation”) concludes the Christmas season with a celebration of God’s glory revealed in the person of Jesus Christ. In Isaiah and Ephesians, that glory is proclaimed for all nations and people. Like the light of the star that guided the magi to Jesus, the light of Christ reveals who we are: children of God who are claimed and washed in the waters of baptism. We are sent out to be beacons of the light of Christ, sharing the good news of God’s love to all people.

Isaiah 60:1-6, Psalm 72:1-7, 10-14, Ephesians 3:1-12, Matthew 2:1-12

January 11th & 12th

Today’s festival rejoices in God’s blessings. We recall and celebrate our adoption as God’s children, the gift of the Holy Spirit, and the promised company of almighty God when we “pass through the waters . . . the rivers . . . fire.” On this day the heavens open again for this assembly, and we receive the gift of God’s Beloved, Jesus, in bread and wine.

Isaiah 43:1-7, Psalm 29, Acts 8:14-17, Luke 3: 15-17, 21-22

January 18th & 19th

The Sundays after Epiphany continue to celebrate the revelation of God’s glory to us as it was made known to the magi and to those on Jordan’s banks at Jesus’ baptism—today using wedding imagery. Our God rejoices over God’s people as those being married rejoice over one another. By the power of the Spirit there are gifts galore for everyone. In Christ Jesus the best wine is saved for last. Taste and see.

Isaiah 62:1-5, Psalm 36:5-10, 1Corinthians 12:1-11, John 2:1-11

January 25th & 26th

God’s glory is revealed in the reading of scripture. People stand at attention. People weep. People prostrate themselves in prayer. The unity of the church is another reflection of God’s glory. Most gloriously, the promises of God are fulfilled in the person of Jesus Christ. Gather round. Listen up. Glimpse the glory of God.

Nehemiah 8:1-3,5-6,8-10, Psalm 19, 1 Corinthians 12:12-31a, Luke 4:14-21

PRAYER VENTURES

January

1 New Year's Day Ask God to grant us strength, wisdom and patience to accomplish new goals this year. Give thanks for God's forgiveness and for the support of others, which help us to continue when we fail, grow frustrated or are redirected in our pursuits.

2 "So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; look, new things have come into being!" (2 Corinthians 5:17). Our newness in Christ is realized in our present life and in the future, when we enter the kingdom of God. Pray for the Spirit to strengthen our faith and to help us embrace our new selves — every day.

3 Pray for the Spirit to stir our patience, understanding and respect for others when we find ourselves in conflict with our neighbors or siblings in Christ.

4 Pray for our synod bishops attending the Bishop's Academy in Puerto Rico as they study and reflect on the challenge and promise of Lutheran mission and theology in Puerto Rico and the Caribbean.

5 Give thanks to God that Jesus Christ lived among us, that we might believe in God's grace and truth and be filled with joy and relief as children of God who are set free to live as Jesus did in service to our neighbors.

6 Epiphany "This star, as bright as day, that will never lead astray with its message so appealing, is the word of God, revealing Christ, the way, the truth, the life" (ELW 301). Praise God for the gift of Jesus Christ, who reveals to us the way, truth and life of God's love, forgiveness and promises.

7 Pray for a peaceful transfer of presidential power in the United States and that the Spirit will influence and guide our leaders to serve all people with compassion, wisdom and concern for justice and unity.

8 "In [Christ] we have redemption through [Christ's] blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace that he lavished on us" (Ephesians 1:7-8). God's boundless love and forgiveness are lavish indeed. Give thanks and praise to God!

9 Remember in prayer college, university and seminary students taking part in winter J-term classes and service learning, that their experiences will deepen their faith, expand their knowledge and reveal how their gifts and passions can be used to do God's work in the world.

10 Thank God for the ELCA's special relationship with the United Methodist Church, a full communion partner since 2009. Pray for the church, its members and its leaders, that we will respect our differences but embrace our unity in Christ so we can spread the gospel, serve our neighbor, and share leadership and resources for doing God's work in the world — together.

11 Give thanks for God's grace and the work of the Spirit, which equip us with the tools, wisdom and courage needed to face the challenges of everyday life and to bear Christ's love and hope into the world.

12 Pray that we will affirm our baptism by telling others about the triune God, by loving and serving our neighbors, by encouraging the faith of our siblings in Christ and by seeking opportunities for spiritual growth.

13 Pray for those who respond to God's call by working hand in hand with our companion churches and other organizations around the world through ELCA Global Mission. Ask God to sustain and strengthen their faith, their commitment and their diverse gifts.

14 "Who hears the song our sorrows swallow and offers hope to calm our fears? When all our words seem frail and hollow, God heeds the prayers within our tears" (All Creation Sings 1050). Give thanks that God hears and responds to our grief and suffering, even when our words fall short of expressing the depth of our sorrow.

15 Pray for the outdoor ministries of our church that are busy recruiting and hiring young-adult staff to share their faith and serve campers of all ages, backgrounds and abilities in summer programs.

16 National Religious Freedom Day Give thanks that the U.S. Constitution supports the freedom to embrace religion, to worship and to share our faith according to our personal beliefs. Pray that we will respect the religious beliefs of our neighbors and support their right to practice their faith openly, without constraints or persecution.

PRAYER VENTURES January

17 “You who know our fears and sadness, grace us with your peace and gladness; Spirit of all comfort, fill our hearts” (WOV 738). Lift up your worries, troubles, insecurities and grief to God, who understands us and grants comfort, strength and endurance in every circumstance of our life.

18 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity Today begins a week of prayer with our siblings in Christ around the world. Give thanks that we are one in Christ and that, together, we cast a brilliant light in the world.

19 Praise God for the inexhaustible grace shown to us throughout our lives and baptismal journeys.

20 Martin Luther King Jr. Day Remember and give thanks for the life, teaching and advocacy of Martin Luther King Jr. for the sake of justice, inclusion and the value of all people, especially those who suffer persecution, racism, disdain or oppression. Pray that we will be inspired by our neighbors and siblings in Christ who are fearless and persistent in their advocacy and compassion for others.

21 Thank God for the gifts given to us through the Spirit, and pray that others might recognize their own unique gifts and see where they are valued and needed.

22 Pray for ELCA directors for evangelical mission, who serve as resources to synods in mission development, congregational renewal and stewardship.

23 Pray for our church’s grassroots Life of Faith initiative, meant to help us to live out our baptismal vocation in daily life, serve our neighbors and work for justice in the diverse contexts of family, workplace, school, community and the world.

24 Pray that we will open all our senses to God’s glory, power and voice as revealed in nature — the awe-inspiring and dynamic handiwork of our Creator.

25 Conversion of Paul Give thanks that, for God, all things are possible, even when we do not envision the possibility of lives being changed, hearts softened or faith awakened.

26 Ask God to help us follow Christ’s example, being humble, kind, loving, merciful, attentive to our neighbors and quick to respond to their needs.

27 Remember in prayer youth, adults and families involved in service learning and mission trips throughout the year. Pray that they might share the gospel, serve their neighbors in need, participate in the work of global companions and ecumenical partners, and respond to the unique contexts and needs of communities.

28 Remember in prayer neighbors and siblings in Christ who suffer poverty, homelessness and hunger, that their hope will be sustained, their daily needs met and their human dignity respected.

29 “The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul; the decrees of the Lord are sure, making wise the simple; the precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart” (Psalm 19:7-8). Give thanks for the word of God, for it is trustworthy and restores us, imparts wisdom, and stirs joy and gratitude in our hearts.

30 Pray for an end to conflicts and violence in the world, including in our own communities. Ask the Spirit to inspire and equip us to be peacemakers and bearers of hope.

31 Give thanks for Women of the ELCA (WELCA) and its ministry with women to encourage bold and active faith in Jesus Christ, promote healing and wholeness, address injustices, discover spiritual gifts, and encourage and equip leaders.
